Business Law

Business owners need the benefit of an experienced, resourceful and approachable legal advisor.

Business Advice

We offer informed advice and help on matters that commonly arise in the course of a business.

This can range from:

- The formation of companies and partnerships;
- Shareholder agreements;
- Partnership agreements;
- Contracts;
- Director's duties and responsibilities;
- Property issues;
- Employment;

Business Sales and Purchases

We have a reputation for comprehensive advice in the transfer of all types of businesses from Agencies to Zoos.

Whether just the sale and purchase of business assets and goodwill, or share purchase agreements for the transfer of companies, we can assist you with the entire process and will ensure that the transaction is properly documented to protect the interests of both buyer and seller.

Dispute Resolutions

We can help you resolve disputes and deal with court proceedings. We aim to achieve a quick and effective result, by negotiation if possible, at a cost which is proportionate to the sum or matter concerned.

Examples of areas we cover are:

- Company and commercial litigation;
- Contractual disputes and negligence claims;
- Property matters Including boundary disputes;
- Landlord and tenant (commercial and residential);
- Employment;
- Construction and building disputes;
- Contentious probate and Inheritance Act claims.

Employment

We advise on all aspects of employment law including:

- Drafting contracts, handbooks, policies and procedures;
- Business acquisitions, disposals and transfers;
- Contractual disputes;
- Disciplinary issues and grievances;
- Advance planning for staff restructuring and efficiencies, including redundancies;
- HR training;
- Working time and pay, including maternity and family rights;
- Enforcement of covenants restructure.

Commercial Property

We offer practical advice, tailored to the individual client's circumstances, in respect of all property matters including:

- The sale and purchase of all types of property;
- The taking or granting of new leases or any subsequent assignment of the lease;
- All development land issues ranging from options and conditional contracts through to plot sales;
- Financing and refinancing of individual units or entire portfolios.

Lawyers for Your Business

We are delighted to be members of the Law Society's Lawyers for your Business Scheme. This provides potential clients who are in or starting a small business with an opportunity to have an initial meeting of up to half an hour with a qualified business lawyer free of charge.

The meeting is intended to allow clients to raise potential issues of concern relating to their business and to receive preliminary guidance on the legal issues facing them without having to worry about costs.
